

Face in a Book Challenge

“Face in a Book Challenge” is a Reading Summer Program for Kindergarten - Grade 5 students at Collegiate American School. The purpose is to positively impact literacy skills by bringing an awareness of the importance of reading during the summer to enhance academic achievement. Our goal is for our sandcats to read daily to build their background knowledge, language and vocabulary skills and reading comprehension. Research shows that children decline in their reading ability during the summer months, and we challenge you to READ to strengthen reading skills for the upcoming academic year.

We have provided a list of suggested “good reads” and challenge each elementary student to read daily. Here’s what you need to do.

1. Select a book from the recommended book list for your grade level.
2. Read the book by yourself or with someone.
3. Post a picture of you reading the book on our CAS Facebook page with the hashtag faceinabook (Ex: #faceinabook).
4. Challenge yourself to read at least 30 minutes a day or 5 or more books this summer to boost achievement.
